

Mission

To engage and cultivate talented young professionals by connecting them with peers and providing opportunities to grow their potential, gain visibility, and contribute to the community.

Objectives

- To provide opportunities for young professionals to meet, interact with, and foster relationships with other professionals who have similar interests or goals.
- To provide opportunities for young professionals to broaden their professional skills.
- To facilitate connections and career mentoring/shadowing opportunities of young professionals to the business community and business leaders.
- To help young professionals identify career growth opportunities.
- To provide service/volunteer opportunities for young professionals to contribute to the community.
- To facilitate the integration of college students into the YPN upon graduation.

Membership

The YPN is a dynamic and diverse group of young professionals with the desire to build lasting important relationships, a willingness to learn and grow, and the enthusiasm and drive to get involved within the community. The YPN provides opportunities for professional development, community involvement, social networking, mentoring, and personal growth for our members. Membership in the YPN allows us to offer these activities at little to no cost to our members. Annual membership is $25.00 and includes the following benefits:

- Invitation to all YPN events
- Member pricing at all Chamber events
- Access to private networking events
- Member-to-Member discount card
- Unique opportunities to meet with community leaders and elected officials
- Access to special community volunteer opportunities
- Opportunities to influence positive change in the community
